Legal problems in tax rate could hamper county

Randall County commissioners could face a passle of confusion and the possibility of money-raising problems for their next fiscal year as a result of an apparent 1965 legislative oversight.

The oversight could render illegal any efforts by county commissioners here to raise the tax rate to cover an anticipated budgetary deficit for the fiscal year which begins Oct. 1.

The impact of the law was disclosed earlier this week in an article in the Dallas Morning News quoting a copyrighted article which appeared in the News-Texan newspapers.

Attorneys in the Randall County district attorney's office were investigating the law and its impact on the local county at mid-week.

The law in question is Art. 7044a, which was passed by the 59th Legislature in 1965 and which went into effect Jan. 1, 1966.

The law directs that after the effective date all taxing authorities who use the services of the county tax assessor-collector . . . shall, on or before July 20 of each year, notify the county tax assessor-collector . . . of the tax rate for the succeeding taxable year adopted by the taxing authority."

The question in the law surrounds the word "succeeding" and its definition.

The Dallas newspaper reports having asked Atty. Gen. John Hill for a definition of the phrase "succeeding taxable year" and reports Hill having responded "unofficially" that the term means that a tax rate set "for the succeeding taxable year" by a taxing authority would be a tax rate applicable to tax revenues due and payable on or after Oct. 1 of the year following the year in which the tax rate was set. The tax year, the paper quotes Hill as saying, runs from Jan. 1 through Dec. 31.

Randall County officials are caught in a bind apparently universal throughout Texas counties, that is, they have assumed that the tax rate set each year is applicable to taxes collected the same tax year rather than for the next succeeding year.

If the interpretation of the law by Hill is the interpretation which finally emerges from the controversy it could mean that Randall County could not raise the tax rate this July to increase tax revenues collected beginning in October 1976. The tax rate would be effective with the October 1977 collection.

This could put a burden on the commissioners since at least tentatively they are contemplating spending more in the fiscal year which begins Oct. 1 than will be taken in under the current tax formula of 95 cents per $100 on 25 percent of valuation.

Hill, however, has made no formal ruling on the definition of the term "succeeding taxable year." Nor, according to local officials, has Hill's office been asked to make a formal ruling on the term.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Rick Wilcox said this week the local office would make an investigation into the law and its effect here and "will seriously consider" asking for a formal attorney general's opinion should the results of the investigation warrant it.

Apparently, other than for possible impact of the law on this year's tax rate setting, the law will not effect actions of Randall County's commissioners in setting tax formulae since 1966.

Commissioners court minutes for the past 10 years reflect that since 1965 the commissioners have lowered the tax rate successively from a 1965 level of $1.45 per $100 to $1.22 in 1969 and $1.05 in 1970. The rate was lowered last year to 95 cents.

The percentage of market value upon which the rate has been levied has been hiked since 1965 but is apparently not affected by the 1965 law.

The records do reflect, however, that during several years commissioners did not set the tax rate until after the July 20 deadline established in the law.

Impact on revaluation is possible if interpretation of law holds

If problems are encountered in dealing with the question of tax rates for future Randall County budgets, they will be only compounded for local commissioners when dealing with financing of a full revaluation of county property.

State law virtually mandates that if commissioners plan to spend between $200,000 and $300,000 for a full revaluation next year they must include that figure in the budget for expenditure and must provide for the levying and collecting of a sufficient tax to pay for it.

Preliminary budget figures bandied about by commissioners during recent weeks have not included the full amount for a revaluation. However, commissioners two weeks ago told County Auditor Betty Hodges to include in a supplemental budget work sheet the funds needed for the revaluation.

If the funds are included, commissioners will face an unbalanced budget with expenditures exceeding revenues by at least $175,000. That is, unless taxes are increased to pay for the revaluation.

According to the Texas Constitution, Art. 11 Sect. 5, commissioners can create no debt unless provision is made at the time of creating the debt, for the levying and collecting of a sufficient tax to pay the interest thereon and provide at least two per cent as a sinking fund.

When the temperature gets close to the 100-degree mark outside, some Canyon youngsters head for the West Texas State University activities center to indulge in a variety of activities ranging from swimming to paddleball to just playing pinball. Gwen Schram, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Schram, found a retreat from the heat Tuesday in the pinball room.

Prosecutors find loophole in law in dealing with offense of minor

Randall County prosecutors have found a loophole in Texas law they believe may be big enough to drive a beer truck through — that is, if the driver is a minor.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Rick Wilcox said Monday the district attorney's office has asked Texas Atty. Gen. John Hill for an official ruling on the interpretation of several state statutes which seem contradictory when applied to a specific incident which occurred in Canyon recently.

The situation as Wilcox explained it:

A 15-year-old Canyon youth was arrested by city police for possession of alcoholic beverages after drinking from a beer container within the plain view of a city policeman.

A charge of minor in possession was filed in municipal court against the youth, the first such charge ever filed against him.

Now, says Wilcox, the problem is that Texas laws ostensibly provide no avenue for prosecution of the youth.

One section of the Texas Family Code provides that "any criminal court in which is filed a case against a juvenile other than perjury or a traffic offense 'shall transfer the case to the juvenile court'."

In Randall County, the juvenile court is held either by 181st Dist. Judge George Dowlen or 47th Dist. Judge Bryan Poff. Thus, in the offense involving the Canyon youth, the case would have to be transferred either to Dowlen's or to Poff's court for prosecution.

But, Wilcox says, another part of the Family Code restricts the jurisdiction of juvenile courts in cases involving violations of misdemeanor penal laws by juveniles which are punishable by fine only.

One section of the Family Code says juvenile courts may handle juveniles in cases involving delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision.

A juvenile court judge, Wilcox says, can handle a juvenile for delinquent conduct only if the conduct is something other than a traffic offense that violates the penal law of the state and is punishable by jail or imprisonment.

Minor in possession doesn't fall into that category since it is an offense punishable by fine only.

Another section of the Family Code says the court may handle a juvenile for conduct indicating a need for supervision but defines that conduct as being conduct other than a traffic offense which on three or more occasions violates misdemeanor laws which are punishable by fine only.

So, says Wilcox, the prosecutor's office faces a situation in which the youth's case must be transferred to the juvenile court but the juvenile court apparently cannot adjudicate the case because the youth has not violated the misdemeanor law three or more times.

Until the law is clarified, Wilcox says, the juvenile court judge's only option may be to dismiss the charges.

Because of the seeming loophole, the prosecutor's office has asked the attorney general the following questions:

*Must the municipal court transfer the case against the youth to the juvenile court?

*May the juvenile court, after the transfer, exercise any authority over the child other than to dismiss the case since the three violations required by the law have not been committed.

*May either court proceed to try the child for the offense charged?

*Assuming that the municipal court must transfer the offense to the juvenile court, and assuming further that the juvenile court must dismiss the cases because three violations have not been tallied, are the dismissals to be counted in the future should the youth again be arrested for similar offenses?

Planting time running out for grain sorghum farmers

Time's running out for the planting of Randall County's 1976 summer grain sorghum crop.

County Agent John Brazzil said this week farmers in only scattered areas of the county have planted their summer crop.

Most farmers, he said, have not yet received enough moisture to plant.

"We're approaching the cut-off time for planting," he said. "After July 1, the time left for the growing season becomes too short."

Most areas of the county have inadequate subsoil moisture for summer crop planting.

Those farmers who have already planted their sorghum crop are awaiting adequate moisture for early growth.

If the summer sorghum crop looks bleak as of mid-June, it's no bleaker than the panorama which faces the county's wheat farmers as they survey their 1976 wheat crop.

Lack of substantial rainfall throughout the growing season spelled woe for the dryland crop, which comprises the greatest percentage of acre land in the county.

Brazzil said some irrigated wheat is now being harvested with many farmers simply trying to salvage what wheat was left from the drought.

"Harvest this year will not be real exciting," he said.

For the past year, the county has received nearly 10 inches under the normal annual rainfall for the Panhandle area.

Since Aug. 1 of 1975, Canyon weather observers have recorded only 8.31 inches of moisture.

No moisture was reported in

Welfare checks small in county compared to other Texas areas

State and federal welfare agencies spend far less in Randall County than in other Texas counties of comparable size, figures compiled this week indicate.

The figures also indicate the number of persons receiving food stamps in the county is declining.

The Texas Department of Public Welfare, which compiled the figures, spent only $728,900 in Randall County for various programs during the 1975 fiscal year.

That compares to department expenditures of $4.4 million in Victoria County, which has a comparable 1970 population figure, and $3.7 million in Brazos County, which also has a comparable 1970 population figure. Expenditures in Midland County, which had a 1970 population of 65,000 persons, totalled $3 million.

Across-the-board, the figures indicate, Randall County receives far less in welfare payments than other counties with populations between 50,000 and 70,000.

Ellen Miller, DPW regional information officer who released the figures, said an average of 439 persons monthly received food stamps during fiscal 1975 in Randall County. On Jan. 1, 1976, only 378 persons were receiving food stamps and the figure decreased slightly to 372 persons in March 1976.

Food stamp bonus value during the 1975 fiscal year in the county totalled $120,000. That compares with a bonus value during the same year of $1.2 million for Brazos County and $1.3 million for Victoria County.

Only $25,000 worth of commodities were distributed in the county during the fiscal year, compared to $142,000 in Brazos County and $116,000 in Victoria County.

AFDC payments were sent 20 families with 47 children during the fiscal year totalling $25,500 in Randall County. In Brazos County, the figure totalled $454,000 and in Victoria County the figure was $639,000.

Medical payments made to Randall County residents during the fiscal year totalled $557,000 compared to $1.9 million to Brazos County and $2.3 million to Victoria County residents.

Nursing homes and institutions in Randall County received payments totalling $480,000 during the fiscal year. For the same period in Brazos County,

Rainbow girls find rainbow over rain-soaked Houston

Canyon and Amarillo area Rainbow Girls, who haven't seen much of the phenomenon for which they're named in the Texas Panhandle recently, went to Houston last week and got too much of a good thing.

The girls saw three and a half rainbows grace the cloudy skies over Texas' largest city as they tried to make their way from a restaurant to their motel through rain-flooded streets.

The 10 Canyon girls and four adult sponsors were among 78 girls and sponsors who traveled to Houston for a state assembly early last week just in time to be caught in the flooding which inundated much of Houston.

Sponsor Mrs. Betty Drake and Rainbow Girl Becky Jo Lindsey of Canyon tell the following story of their adventure:

The two busloads of Amarillo area girls arrived in Houston about noon Sunday, June 13 and checked in to the Astroworld Hotel.

Monday was spent in sight-seeing and meetings and a meeting consumed

City avoids junk hassle

The city commissioners sidestepped a hassle over junked appliances Monday night, partly through the mediation of the city attorney.

Commissioner H.R. Fulton, responding to what he said were numerous complaints about a downtown lot littered with junked appliances, requested the board consider enacting an ordinance to prohibit such junkyards.

City attorney Elton Cox, reviewing the law, told commissioners that the city has the power to guard public health or safety by restricting businesses.

But he urged the commission and appliance store owner Dean Anderson to work out the problem without enacting an ordinance.

Anderson told the commissioners he used the old ap-

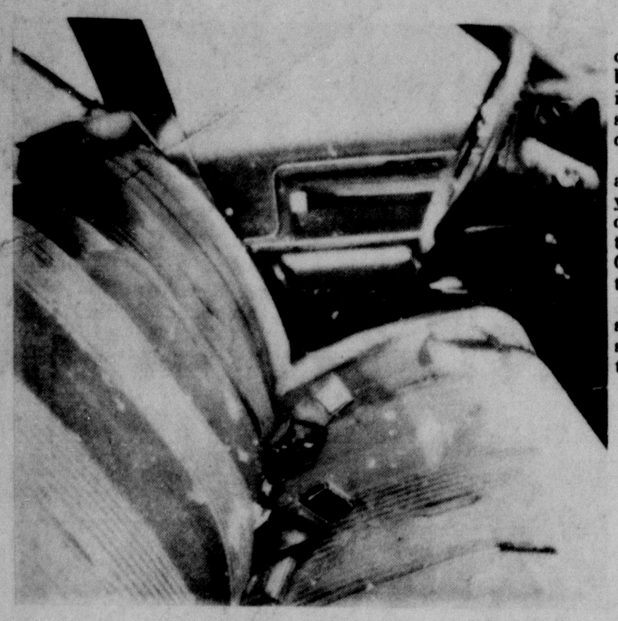
Aerosol can explodes in car



An aerosol can in the glove compartment of a 1975 Oldsmobile wrecked havoc on the car's interior earlier this month causing an estimated $1,000 in damages.

The automobile, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas of Canyon, was being used by the couple's daughter, Leslie, as transportation to her job with the Canyon Independent School District Administration office.

Miss Thomas found the foam spewed car and damages after spending her afternoon hours on the job. When she left the office, she found the car spewed with foam, the dash loose, and holes torn in the headliner, the passenger's front door, and the upholstery of the front seat.

Temperatures on the afternoon of the mishap ranged in the high 80's, low 90's, and Miss Thomas had left the left window on the driver's side about halfway down due to the heat.

Other than the damage incurred, the car also reeked of fumes from the aerosol explosion which has been estimated by insurance officials to be about $1,000 in total damages.

Spewed with foam, the Bill Thomas automobile received $1,000 in damages as a result of an aerosol can exploding in the dash compartment (lower photo). The dash compartment door was blown off, with various wiring destroyed, and other destruction throughout the 1975 Oldsmobile.

America Today

Essay by Susie Wright

In this time and year, 1976, people are talking about the "great America." But, what is America? America is a nation, 200 years old, a democracy. You ask, "Is that all?" No, it's much, much more.

America is happiness. The joy of making America grow. America is sadness. The sadness that the men who set up our nation aren't here to see how it developed. She is the longing for men that lived and died for her in such wars as the Revolutionary and Civil wars.

America is laughter. The laughter that pulls us out of the bad times right side up. It is music. A greater harmony than ever before existed. She is noise. The ringing of voices, barking of dogs, singing of birds, the simple everyeay sounds of city and country. America is silence. The free silence to pray to our Lord.

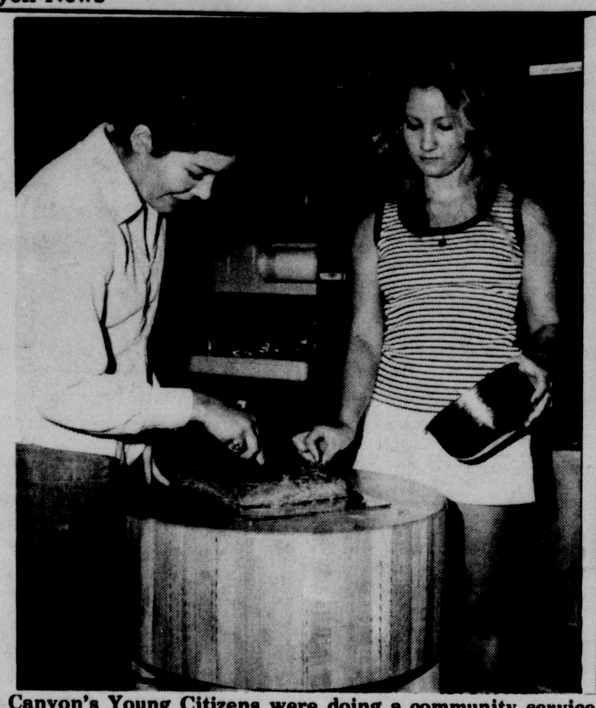
America is in our schools. Teaching the young what the old have discovered in hope they will progress further. She is the old who remember the past, and the young who will make the future. It is houses that grow to homes. America is caring. Caring for people, not only in America, but for any country that needs a helping hand.

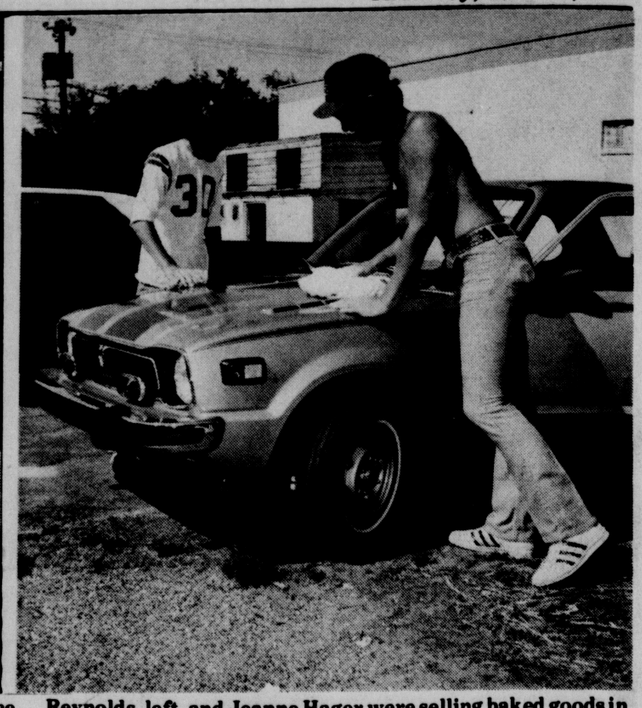
"America the Beautiful." She is beautiful. There is nothing more beautiful than her trees, animals and flowers. Some parts of our nation are polluted, many more aren't. For those that are, we're working hard to clean them up, the "American way."

America is excitement. Excitement grows as we wait for the day marking our 200th birthday!

America is living, being free. Free to live any way we choose. Free to worship our way. Free to say what you want, when you want. She is variety. Our vast variety of jobs makes many people satisfied with the work they do to live. It is pride. We're proud to hold up our head. We came out on top in World War I and II. We are a strong, progressive nation.

America is all these things put together, plus much, much more. The best way to sum it up is to say, "America is people. As the name, U.S., implies, she is 'us'."





Canyon's Young Citizens were doing a community service fundraising job during the weekend to raise additional funds for a scholarship at Canyon High School. The CHS boys represented by Barry Watson, left, and Alan Rozell were washing down new and old cars at Gene Morrison's WT Conoco station. The CHS girls, represented here by Susie Reynolds, left, and Jeanne Hager were selling baked goods in the city's three grocery stores, as well as preparing special order baked goods for customers. The effort raised $117.00 on Saturday and plans are set to hold a July 10 calf fry supper and dance with only advance tickets will be available by calling 655-3330 or 655-3891.

Loula Grace Erdman dies

WT novelist has renowned career

Loula Grace Erdman, who was for many years the novelist-in-residence at West Texas State University, died at 3:45 p.m. on Sunday at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

Miss Erdman lived at 2010 Austin St. in Amarillo and had come to the Texas Panhandle during the 1930s to teach in public schools of the area. She was teaching in the Amarillo Public Schools when her first stories and articles were published and her first novel, "Separate Star," which launched a career in story writing, was published in 1944.

Born in Alma, Missouri, Miss Erdman was serving as a creative writing teacher and novelist-in-residence at WTSU when her novel "Years of the Locust" won the Dodd-Mead Redbook Award in 1946. She continued to teach and gave of her time and knowledge to advise others interested in writing as she herself produced 20 novels, several non-fiction books and numerous short stories and other articles.

In April 1976, Panhandle Pen Women and West Texas State University observed Loula Grace Erdman Day during a Writers Workshop held on the campus in Canyon. In her career professional and public recognition was bestowed on Miss Erdman including two Texas Institute of Letters awards and honors in 1970 as the distinguished graduate of Central Missouri State College during the centennial celebration of the college. Miss Erdman was the recipient of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Cultural Achievement Award in 1973.

Miss Erdman held a bachelor of science degree from Central Missouri State College; a master's degree from Columbia University; and various other credits from the University of Wisconsin, University of Southern California and West Texas State University. She was a member of the Polk Street United Methodist Church of Amarillo.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Polk Street United Methodist Church of Amarillo with Dr. Clifford Trotter, pastor, officiating. Arrangements were handled by Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors in Amarillo and burial will be in Blackburn, Missouri.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. R.A. Wilson of Amarillo; a brother, James Erdman of Tom's River, N.J.; two nieces, Mrs. Mollie Lou Reko of St. Paul, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Sandol of Califon, N.J.; and a nephew, R.E. Wilson, III of Ventura, California.

Splashing dancers will 'do it again'

After a successful "splashing party and dance" held last Friday evening at Conner Park swimming pool and parking area, the summer recreation ad hoc committee will be meeting next week to make plans for a similar event during July.

The meeting of all persons interested in providing a summer activity for high school, junior high youth of Canyon has been set for Wednesday evening, June 30, to begin at 7 p.m. in the offices of the Canyon News.

Approximately 375 youths were entertained at the recent activity where Steve Baird, CHS graduate, served as disc jockey for an evening of swimming and dancing in the pool parking lot.

Hospital panel okays contract

South Randall County Hospital District board members Monday night approved a new contract with Metropolitan Ambulance Service of Amarillo for the provision of ambulance service in Canyon and Randall County rural areas.

The one-year contract was not officially signed by the board, but Administrator Ray Grimes said the signatures will come later.

The contract calls for the hospital district, Randall County and the City of Canyon to pay equal shares of a more than $3,000 per month subsidy to the firm for providing the ambulance service here.

In other business Monday night, the board received a report from a memorials committee and approved the purchase of several plaques which will be placed in specific locations in the hospital memorializing gifts.

Pricing items for the June 26 Flea Market being sponsored by the Women's Division Canyon Chamber of Commerce on Saturday at the Jr. Livestock Building from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. were members: Mary Greiner, left, and Evelyn Trice. The flea market proceeds will be used for the purchase of new Christmas lights for the City of Canyon and other community projects.

Sr. Citizens host crowd at open house Sunday

Canyon Senior Citizens entertained between 300-400 local residents during their open house at the newly completed Senior Citizens Building on Sunday.

"We were very pleased with the response," related a Senior Citizen spokesman.

The organization of Senior Citizens is designed to serve any interested resident aged 55 and above in many ways. The group has a potluck supper each week on Thursday evenings beginning at 7 p.m. with members providing foods for the evening, with games and fellowship following.

The Senior Citizens Building at 1719 5th Avenue is also open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday for other purposes including a senior citizens fitness program at 1:30 p.m. daily.

In addition to other services, the Senior Citizens in cooperation with the nursing department of West Texas State University have a monthly blood pressure testing set to precede the first supper meeting of the month.

The 244 member group also plans to begin various craft and other classes and recreations for senior citizens in the near future. For further information on membership requirements contact the office at 655-3331.

Most visitors are Texans here to see outdoor drama

Most of the summer visitors to Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum are likely to be Texans, a glance at the visitors' register shows.

Of 77 signatures, the latest 77 signatures in the register Monday, only 21 visitors were from outside Texas.

But Texans and non-Texans alike agreed on one thing: they liked Canyon and the museum.

Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Crist, of Canyon Lake, Tex., were here primarily to see the outdoor drama, TEXAS.

But this was not his first visit to Canyon, Crist said.

"I was here 45 years ago, when there were just gravel roads and some old Model T's," he said. "Now, I'm back."

Crist said he worked in the Panhandle and passed through Canyon on his way south.

Brenda Bacon, 7½, decided she liked the stuffed animals in the wildlife exhibit best after touring the museum.

She, too, was in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.L. Bacon of Pasedena, Tex. to see the outdoor drama at Palo Duro Canyon.

The museum, they agreed, was "great."

There are more visitors to the museum this year than there were during the same period last year.

In the first five months of this year, 47,179 persons visited the museum. Last year, from January through May, 40,394 saw the museum.

Last Sunday, 815 persons visited and the total for the week ending June 14 was 3,479. The week before, 2,481 visitors came to the museum, with 549 touring on Sunday.

From Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Raines came to Amarillo to visit friends. They came to Canyon, they said, just to see the museum and were not planning to see TEXAS.

A couple from Corsicana, Tex., Wanda and Eural Brown, stopped to see the sights on their way to Colorado.

The museum was their first stop, they said, and they planned to go on to the canyon to camp, and, yes, to see TEXAS.

Now in its eleventh year, TEXAS has been rated one of the top tourist attractions in the nation.

King attends band camp

John King, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. King, Jr. of Canyon, attended the third annual Baylor Wind Ensemble Camp on the Baylor University campus June 5-12. King is a 1976 graduate of Canyon High School.

The Baylor Wind Ensemble Camp is a highly specialized, limited enrollment workshop providing performance opportunities and intensive training for talented high school wind and percussion players.

This year's camp included students from four states.

Decrease seen in vandalism

Vandalism decreased substantially on Canyon School District campuses last year, figures compiled by Business Manager Ronnie Wood indicate.

Wood said last week the first big-expense vandalism in the past year occurred Wednesday night at the Rex Reeves Elementary School.

Vandals broke six windows at the school. Replacement cost will be about $300, Wood said, a figure which is higher even than the total loss to vandalism for the entire school year.

Wood said vandals had caused damage totalling $262.70 throughout the school year. Of that amount, the school has recouped about $69 from youths who reimbursed the district.

Compared to the 1974-75 school year, when vandals let nary a weekend go by without hitting the junior high school, Wood said last school year had a minimum of vandalism.

Hot days spell danger for dogs left in cars

Every summer, a few dog owners inflict a painful death upon their pets.

They take their animals with them in the car and then leave them, usually locked inside, with the windows closed or only slightly opened.

If the day is hot, the owner may return to his car to find his dog dead or seriously ill from overheating.

"It's not just the temperature in the car, it's the ventilation," Canyon veterinarian J.L. Markham said. "They just burn up all the oxygen in the car. They smother."

The body temperature of a dog suffering from heat stroke may climb to 107 or 108, he explained.

First aid measures include soaking the animal in water or ice and getting the dog to drink water, he said.

A dog can overheat from being left tied or kenneled in the sun or from too much exercise, Dr. Markham said. Shade and water should always be provided a dog in the summer and dogs, especially hunting dogs, should be restrained from over exertion in hot weather.

Particularly susceptible to heat stroke he said are the short-nosed breeds such as English Bulldogs, Boxers and Pekingese.

Backyard fete ends clubyear for gardeners

Canyon Garden Club ended their year on June 15 with a backyard supper event at the home of Mrs. A.K. Goodman. The supper was followed with games of '88', and fellowship.

Next meeting for the club will be during the early fall. Those present were members Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beard, Mr. and Mrs. M.S. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glovier, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Grigsby, Mr. and Mrs. V.B. Hubbard, Mr. Louis Harvey and Mesdames E.T. Stereo stolen in break in found in nearby alley

Electronic equipment stolen in a burglary of Radio Shack last week was found the next day in a Canyon alley.

The stereo and headphones were found June 15 about a block from the store by Mrs. W.E. Glazner, who lives nearby, Lt. Tom Rolen said.

She notified the Randall County Sheriff's Department, who turned the equipment over to city police.

Charles Ray Brown, 19, of Borger and Michael Edward Glover, 19, of Pampa, charged with the burglary, remained this week in Randall County jail. Bond for Brown is $10,000 and Glover's bond is $5,000.

Police responding to a burglar alarm arrived at the store before much equipment had been taken from the store, Rolen said. Most of the equipment was left piled at the back door when the burglars fled.

"The burglar alarm was all that saved them (the store) from getting ripped off," Rolen said. "They got in, and spent some time in the store piling up stuff by the back door. Only when they were leaving did they trip the alarm."

The youths were arrested several hours after the break-in as they drove back through Canyon.

Steven Ray Vatole, 19, of Canyon pleaded guilty in municipal court this week to public intoxication. He was arrested Friday night at a teen dance at city pool.

A court appearance was set next week for Jay Huey and Matt Madewell, both 17 and of Canyon, who where charged early Monday morning with disorderly conduct and possession of alcohol.

Craig Johnson, 18, of Canyon pleaded not guilty to public intoxication following his arrest Saturday night at Conner Park.

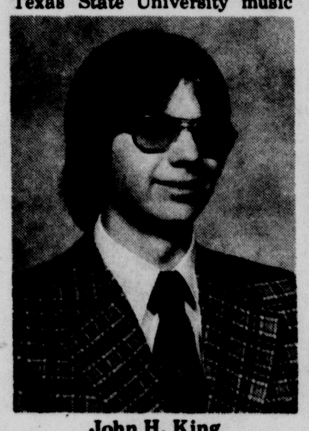
Dennis Myers M.D.

Dennis Myers of Canyon is one of 47 students graduated from the University of Texas Medical School at Houston.

Myers will now enter an internship or residency program in family practice. He received his M.D. on June 12 during joint ceremonies at the UT Health Science Center.

John King awarded first Haynie scholarship

A Canyon high school senior is the first recipient of a $100 scholarship honoring North Texas State University music faculty member John J. Haynie.



John H. King

John H. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. King, Canyon, will enter NTSU this fall to study trumpet under Haynie.

The trumpet scholarship was established a year ago by friends, colleagues and former students in recognition of Haynie's 25 years at NTSU.

King, a member of the 1976 national high school honors band and the all-state band, has appeared with the U.S. Armed Forces Bicentennial Band and the Amarillo Symphony. He has won numerous awards in University Interscholastic League competition and at the Greater Southwest Music Festival, and in 1975 was selected outstanding soloist at the Texas State Solo and Ensemble contest.

Funeral rites are conducted for Fowler, 65

Funeral services for Vincent L. Fowler, 65, were held Monday afternoon at Calvary Baptist Church in Canyon.

Mr. Fowler, 65, died Saturday at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Amarillo. He resided at 1603 2nd Avenue in Canyon after moving here from Wayside in 1956.

Born December 5, 1910 at Oglesby, Texas, Mr. Fowler was married to Ethel Holcomb at Tulia on November 16, 1965. He had been employed as a custodian with West Texas State University for 8½ years when he retired in 1968.

Funeral rites were conducted by Rev. Darrell Lewis, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Bovina and former pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Canyon. Burial was at Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors. Serving as pallbearers were: Eric Burnett, O.C. Free, Ray Bible, Hildred Gray, Bob Chambers and Dub Youngblood. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Adult I men's class of Calvary Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Ethel of Canyon; two daughters, Mrs. Annie McClain of Canyon and Mrs. Katherine Kirkwood of Edwards Air Force Base in California; two sons, Curtis Arthur Fowler of Irving and Leonard Elva Harvey of Bartlesville, Oklahoma; a brother, Henry F. Fowler of Amarillo; a sister, Jessie Mae Gilley of Dallas; his mother, Mrs. Lillie Fowler of Canyon; and six grandchildren.

State GOP delegation includes 3 from county

Randall County will be better represented than most Texas counties in the August Republican National Convention in Kansas City.

During balloting last weekend at the state GOP convention, Canyon's J. Evetts Haley was named an at-large delegate for the national convention.

Mrs. Nadine Gregg of South Amarillo, who is Randall County Republican Chairperson, was named an alternate delegate to the national convention.

They will join James Brandon of South Amarillo, who was selected during May primary balloting to attend the convention as a delegate for Ronald Reagan.

The national convention will be Aug. 15-19 at Kansas City.

Thirty persons from Randall County attended last weekend's state convention in Fort Worth.

Sales tax revenue

Sales taxes returned to the city for the month of June amounted to $20,059.94.

The city government expects approximately $100,000 in sales tax revenue this fiscal from the one percent which the state returns to the local government.

Local DKG members attend convention

Cortez Dowlen and Donna Wilson of Canyon have returned from the 47th annual Alpha State Convention in El Paso of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International.

Mrs. Dowlen is the state research chairman and a local member of the Zeta Zeta chapter. Mrs. Wilson, a member of Zeta Delta chapter locally, sang in the state choir during the convention.

Theme of the convention was from the American poet Robert Frost: "But I have promises to keep, and miles to go before I sleep. . .". A bicentennial theme was used for a birthday luncheon during the convention as the delegates celebrated the dual birthdays of the country's 200th and the society's 47th year.

"America, Of Them I Sing" was the convention's musical theme and the working convention included a series of workshops designed to train new presidents and their officers as well as training for standing committee chairmen and appointed officers. Entertainment highlights for the convention included a festival "Noche Alegre" held during the opening night in El Paso's Civic Center Lobby and fountain area.

Special convention representatives were from the newly-formed Alpha State of Mexico which joins eight other countries in the existing structure with international headquarters in Austin, Texas with 135,000 members world-wide. A highlight of the convention was the Founder's Ceremony honoring the twelve original organizers of the Society and the announcement that 65 members had received $75,000 in stipends for further study on scholarships this year.

Memorial fund honors Green

A memorial scholarship fund in honor of the late West Texas State University Plant Science Department Head Jimmie Green has been established by the WTSU School of Agriculture.

Green, 46, died June 9.

Anyone wishing to contribute should send their donations to Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the WTSU School of Agriculture. All funds will be handled through the WTSU Foundation, and are tax-emempt.

All invited to participate

Festival time is almost here and all community residents are encouraged to do their part in making Canyon Days '76 a time to remember.

The traditional summer celebration this year has taken on a hometown atmosphere with city and county residents invited to join in the overall effort observing the 200th birthday of America.

Special project areas which are open to city and county residents are the parade and the flea market, which are both being handled under supervision of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce and the women's division.

The parade will begin at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday afternoon, July 3 and will start from the parking lot of the First National Bank progressing to Conner Park where other festival events will be underway.

"At present we have about 20 entries ranging from Sunday School classes to the Boy Scouts," says Roland Black, Chamber manager. Other floats already signed up for the parade include a group of Model A Club members in vintage automobiles, as well as VIP cars in which Miss Canyon — Cindy Brooks, State Representative Bob Simpson and other parade dignitaries will be riding.

Those planning to enter the parade should sign up prior to June 30 by contacting Black at the chamber office, 655-3201. Parade prizes will include free tickets to the chamber-sponsored barbecue in the park following the parade.

The "flea market" at Conner Park is being arranged for through the women's division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce with booth spaces renting at $3 each. Genelle Bourland, 655-7941, is in charge of booth rentals.

The marketplace will be open from 1-4 p.m. at the park July 3 with vendors selling all types of wares from crafts to mini-garage sale items, says Mrs. Bourland.

Proceeds from "flea market" booth rentals will be added to the chamber's current fundraising efforts to secure new Christmas lighting for the city this year.

the morning Tuesday.

But, shortly after the Tuesday session the rains began and the girls stayed at the hotel to await a break in the weather.

Supper time arrived and the girls dressed in long, flowing dresses for a trip to a Houston restaurant. But while loading during the rains, one bus suffered a twisted drive shaft.

Only 30 girls and sponsors went to the restaurant and during the about one hour it took to eat supper, the streets outside filled with water and stalled cars as the rainfall increased.

Water flowed into the bus as it waited for traffic to unsnarl.

During the 2½ hours it took the bus to inch back to the hotel the girls saw dozens of stalled cars.

At the hotel, the girls discovered their rooms were without air conditioning, lights and water. The elevators had stopped working.

With 2300 girls in the hotel, the management called in special protection, including a bevy of guard dogs and FBI agents called in to supplement the city's police force which was tied up in traffic and other duties.

At noon Wednesday, the state assembly was cancelled because of the rain and shortly after the rains stopped, the water subsided and the Canyon girls went shopping.

They returned home Thursday.

It was, Mrs. Drake and Miss Lindsey aver, an exciting trip for all.

Canyon girls who made the trip were Stacy Wright, Robin Wright, Kim Word, Jeanna Fulton, Michelle Pride, Jotisa Holladay, Nancy Glazener, Terra Tully and Sandy Warwick.

Other sponsors were Mrs. Anna Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dowlen.

Freedom Is - - 1976

Tell anyone about a new television show that's billed as a "Bicentennial Special," and you'll probably be greeted with some indifference. But add the fact that the show is paid for by children; that it uses the talents of some of today's top stars; that it is the fourth prime-time family special from a religious organization; and that it is highly entertaining . . . and the indifference will change into great interest.

The program that incorporates all these unusual attributes is "Freedom Is," produced by Lutheran Television, the communications arm of the International Lutheran Laymen's League and the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod. Lutheran Television also receives credit for "This Is the Life," television's longest running half-hour weekly syndicated dramatic series and winner of a 1974 Emmy Award.

"Our Synod was determined not to pass up the opportunity presented by America's Bicentennial," commented Louis C. Castens, Vacancy Pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church. "Frankly, however, the budget was just not there." According to Rev. Castens, Lutheran Television enlisted the support of the children of the Missouri Synod school system, the strongest Protestant parochial school system in the U.S. The children came through with over $150,000 enabling Lutheran Television to carry a message of freedom to families in America.

"Freedom Is" represents the fourth venture for Lutheran Television into the prime-time arena. Previous shows — "Christmas Is," "Easter Is," and "The City That Forgot About Christmas" — have consistently pulled enthusiastic audiences and high ratings. It all began with "Christmas Is" in 1970. This past Christmas was the strongest mail response yet received for the two yuletide specials. Over 250,000 letters poured in requesting a Bicentennial calendar offered at the end of the show. Well over a million letters have been received since 1970.

"Freedom Is" stars Jonathan Winters, Richard Roundtree, Edward Asner, Joseph Cotten, and Dan Dailey. The music was written by Grammy-winner Jimmie Haskell.

"Freedom Is" goes one step beyond the ordinary "founding of our country" approach. It demonstrates growth of Freedom in our country over the years. The ever-popular heroes of Lutheran TV's previous specials, Benji and Waldo, are taken back to the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The issue of slavery becomes dominant in Congress. But with the British anchored in the harbor and an urgent decision to be made, the slavery issue is put aside. The relationship between Benji and his new-found friend, Jason, a slave, helps focus in on the real issue of freedom.

"Freedom Is" premieres on Friday, July 2, over KVII, channel 7, at 5 p.m. While it is being hailed as a Bicentennial special, the show no doubt will be back in future years as a well-deserved "Summer Classic."

At the end of the show, Benji explains, "I'm helping freedom grow." This becomes the message to be carried into homes around the country on an attractively designed t-shirt decal being offered free of charge by Lutheran Television. The decal allows children to show that they want to be a part of improving human relations around the world. As Rev. Castens puts it, "This show not only entertains but also points out that, although we've come a long way, we still have a long way to go. It will take everyone pulling together to get there." As long as there are shows like "Freedom Is," America is on the way!

Karate class is scheduled

A karate demonstration and participation program by Jay Long, a first degree brown belt, will be held Tuesday at the WT Fieldhouse.

Anyone wanting to participate in the demonstration sponsored by the summer recreation program should bring an old, loose sweat shirt. All recreation participants are invited to take part.

No summer recreation activities will be held July 5. Classes will resume as usual July 6.

Mountain book is available

Modern-day mountain men who have finished their clothing designed by authors James Hanson and Kathryn Wilson can now complete their image.

Volume two of "Mountain Man's Sketch Book" is on sale at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and at the Fur Press, 1430 Hillcrest, Canyon.

The volumes are available at $4 a copy.

pliances for parts and that he took the metal to Hereford to be recycled. He frequently picked up appliances for which he had no use, he said, because customers were unable to get the city to cart them away as junk.

Anderson, who said he had been trying slowly to get his back lot cleaned up, agreed to let the city haul away most of the old appliances.

Fulton dropped his request for an ordinance.

The commissioners approved the wording of a contract with Metropolitan Ambulance Service. The monthly payment to the service from city and county funds and the hospital district was set at $1,141.67. Maximum rates for ambulance service were not specified at the commissioners meeting. Rates had been previously set in a joint meeting of the service, city, county and hospital boards, commissioners said.

The city commissioners also approved the closing of an alley between 8th and 9th Streets and 8th and 9th Avenues for construction of tennis courts by the school district.

They also considered, but took no action, on a suggestion to pay for the relocation of city utility lines at the tennis court site. City manager Glen Metcalf estimated moving the lines would cost about $1,600. The parks and recreation board is likely to recommend paying the relocation costs, Metcalf said, if there is money left after extending a water line and building a road at Southeast Park.

Commissioners appointed Dr. Ken Crossland as a representative to the Bi-City-Bi-County Health Board and named new Commissioner Steve Hines as a representative to Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.

They postponed the next commission meeting to July 12 and agreed to take up then a written complaint from a resident concerning a city employee. The commissioners will hear the matter in executive session at the request of the complaint, Mayor Manly Bryan said, unless the employee asks for an open meeting.

That photo can't be me! Inside I'm a movie star

By FARRIS ANN MORRISON

THE PHOTOGRAPH THAT has appeared with this column bears no resemblance to this person living or dead! It's really strange — inside I feel just like Julie Christie. To spare your esthetic sensibilities, I'll see what I can do to have a different picture.

THIS WEEK WILL feature the rest of the Kids Incorporated teams. You know, it takes a lot of mammas driving a lot of miles to field these teams.

Euris Phipps has a team and a half!! The sixth grade girls have only lost one game in the last eighteen; that was the most recently played game against Panhandle. The score was 12-13! Previous games saw the girls winning over Bivins 38-0, Sunrise 24-2, and Ridgecrest 13-3.

Panhandle is a traditional rival, and a one point loss (to my mind) shouldn't really count, should it? These super girls are Pam Fiel, Devon Marshall, Leslie Martindale, Jeanne McDonald, Susan McNett, Judy Nuzum, Jan Phipps, Teresa Polvadore, Denise Tennison, Michelle and Ranelle Walker, and Melinda Yarbrough. Let's hope these "wonder women" go all the way to the championship like they did last year.

THIS PAST WEEK, the fifth grade boys won over Lamar 38-37, but lost to Eastridge and Highland Park. Chris Poole, Dwayne Hollis, and Michael Rhea each made a homerun against Eastridge, while Dale Whitehead made three! Against Highland Park, Dwayne Hollis and Michael Longhofer each made one. Now, I don't understand this at all, but there were no homeruns made in the game we won! The boys only have two remaining games.

Darrell Shew coaches the second grade girls. They've won two of their four games; the wins were against Paramount Terrace (by one point), and Belmar (by three points). Playing on the team are Judy Bernier, Tiffany Shew, Carol Henwood, Carmen Cannon, Becky Roth, Lori Ann Kitten, Shylene Wood, Anderia Smith, Stacy Barela, April Fewell, Stephanie Brown, Charlotte Rigdon, Jill Hale, and Donna McBee.

Help! I dont have the coach's name for the second and third grade boys. Don't you think they need equal time? Someone please call me with a phone number and name. Thanks.

Don Oswald is coaching the sixth grade boys team. Although they have not won the first five games, Coach Oswald says vacations have kept the roster at less than full strength. Only two points or less separated the scores in two games. Boys participating are Jeff Knight, Steve Wilson, David Watkins, John Hansom, John Ashley, Roger Stevens, Kenny Watts, Donnie Trammel, Mark Walker, and Dean Oswald.

GENE HOWE HAS a Junior High team in the Babe Ruth League for the first time. Kyle Farmer and Ches Bostick are the coaches. These boys are thirteen and fourteen years old, and have played twelve games so far. Chris Betty, Britt Bostick, Ken Cates, Scott Davis, Kent Farmer, Alan Freeman, Randy Green, Lynn Gregory, Darrell Hawkins, Monte Johnson, Danny McGregor, Jim Phipps, and Rusty Riley play on this brand new team.

Because the team has so many thirteen year old starters, and is such a young team, it is felt in the league that the Gene Howe boys have a very good chance to participate in the thirteen year old All Star Tournament. The date has not been set yet, but should take place the second week in July in Guymon, Oklahoma. We wish them luck!

their time, and they still have to go back for a light fixture which wouldn't fit in the car. (Mary Jo was wearing a lovely onyx necklace.) The group was at the horse races in Ruidoso, and visited La Posta, above El Paso. I had to ask, too, so I'll pass along that La Posta, now a museum, housed Billy the Kid at one time or another.

The Taylors took their car, as the Smiths were "un-airconditioned." Barely out of El Paso, desert, summer, the Taylors's air conditioner went out. Well, how would you like all that heat on leather seats?

JUNE 13 THROUGH 20 were the dates of a basketball camp in Plainview at Wayland Baptist College. Fourteen Gene Howe area girls attended, and Sheila Watley was one of their coaches. Sheila was a P.E. aide at Gene Howe.

Girls attending were Dena Harp, Shelley Shenk, Jo Delaney, Kaki Mulherin, Carla Schmidt, Debra Drost, Teresa Polvadore, Tracy Gillis, Denise Tennison, Jan Phipps, Sharon Mester, Melinda Yarbrough, Kristy White, and Deanna Henwood.

I WISH I could have been in Ft. Worth this past week. Linda Robinson, along with the rest of St. Stephen's Bell Choir, was there for a Bell Festival at T.C.U. She was one of 614 taking part in the festival which began Sunday and ended Wednesday with a concert.

Linda said the audience loved it, but the bell musicians were rather overwhelmed by all the ringing! Her husband Terry, sons Tom and Scott, joined her Thursday (nice cool weather) and went to Six Flags Friday and Saturday. Rain Friday really was a plus; not only was it cool, but Linda got in a shopping trip Friday.

JOHN AND ANNETTE McDaniel (I'm just catching up on this) Jamie and John Jr. were at Lake Altus a couple of weeks ago. They enjoyed a nice weekend camping and skiing.

TROY CATES, 9, flew to Houston with his aunt, Mrs. Horn, to visit his cousins for five days. His parents are Terry and Shirley Cates. Mrs. Horn had been here visiting so Troy just went back with her. His cousins, Monty and Cody, had asked their mother to bring them back something!

Troy's flight really was terrific: champagne, strawberries, omelet — all the goodies. (I think I'll go next time.)

CHERRY WINTERS' SISTER, Charlene Lugo, is here visiting from Houston. Her daughter Kim has been here, and will be here all summer visiting Cherry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Cotton.

YOU ALL HAVE a nice week. As for me, well, wheat harvest starts very soon, and that says it all.

T-Anchor club talks on riding

T-Anchor Club met in mid-June at the West Texas State University farm with Cathey Horton and Orin Barnes presenting a program.

Miss Horton is a 4-H leader and horse trainer while Barnes is a horse trainer and riding teacher. The program centered on walking and handling of horses and maintaining a steady trot while riding.

Sharon Shaw was presiding officer for the meeting as plans were outlined for a trail ride on August 15, participation in the District Horse Show for June 30-July 1, and participation in the Canyon Days '76 parade on July 3.

Next regular meeting for the club will be July 20 at the WT Farm. Attending the meeting were Gay Barnes, Rusty Denison, Angie Landrum, Amy and Sara Northrup, Cheryl Roberts, Tracey and Gena Rogers, Connie, Karon and Sharon Shaw, Jim Splawn, Eddy Vance and Randy Whipple.

Sound of splashes signals summer

BY JO FULKERSON

YOU CAN CERTAINLY tell that school is out. Lots and lots of children splash daily in the park pool while mother and/or grandmother soak in the sunshine around the pool area.

Thanks to the efforts of Jon Hoffman, assistant manager here at Siesta Park, for keeping the pool nice and clean and comfortable for all the residents' use. I haven't been in yet this year but the kids all say to come on in, the water is great.

ANOTHER POTENTIAL SPLASHER, maybe for this time next year, was born to Sharon and Roscoe Shipley, 205 La Fiesta, Friday night, June 11. She is a beautiful baby girl with lots of dark hair and weighed in at 6½ pounds.

Sharon and Roscoe named her Brandi Michelle. Brother Brent, who celebrated his 2nd birthday May 27, is understandably proud of "his" new baby. Mother Sharon is doing fine and grandmother, Mrs. J.R. Hancock, is taking good care of the family for a few days.

DORIS, TOD AND DeAnn McKee went to Brownwood recently to attend the Weaver family reunion. Timmy and Rodney Weaver of Amarillo, nephews of Doris, and Mrs. Ethel Weaver of Lubbock, Doris' mother, went with them.

The reunion was held at Kirkland Docks on Brownwood Lake and the reunion hostess was Mrs. Vera Weaver. Everyone had a great time, Doris said.

KATIE, DAVIA AND Kathie Rinne spent a week recently in Slaton to visit with Katie's sisters, Kenna Eckert and Robin Porterfield. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Rinne of Wilson.

They spent a weekend at Greenbelt Lake a while back, too. Katie's niece, Kim, from Slaton has been visiting at the Rinne house lately. * * *

JEAN, PHIL AND Teri Mayfield took a weekend trip to Lake McLelland last weekend where they enjoyed boating, skiing, and camping out. They were joined by three other couples, and Jean said they all had a real good time.

EXCITEMENT PLUS AT the Ruby Huddleston house at 103 Siesta Lane on Memorial weekend. Ruby's grandson, Joe Bob, and Vicki Elaine Capps were married in Westminster Presbyterian Church, Saturday, May 29.

Might add that Joe Bob is the son of Jack and Vera Huddleston, former owners of Siesta. Jack and Vera visited with Ruby over the weekend. Their new home is in Lake Jackson, Texas, and they seem to love it there.

JON AND DIANE Hoffman made a trip to Kansas recently to visit Jon's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoffman in Kiowa, and Pat and Jim Hoffman of Hazelton, and then on to Diane's folks, Carlos and Loiese Cantrel of Elsmore. Jon came home but Diane spent an additional week with her folks.

The Hoffman's both say it is rather quiet around their hacienda because Mary and Christi stayed with relatives when Diane came home.

JERI AND KEN Weber, 140 Siesta Lane, attended the opening of the musical "TEXAS," at Palo Duro Canyon Amphitheatre.

Grandmother got to babysit with Janna, now four and a half months old, and I am sure grandmother had as much fun as the Weber's had.

They did say the musical was enjoyable and they'd go again the first opportunity they had.

GARDENS ARE SPRINGING up all over the place around the park and some look extra promising.

Mrs. Louise Sheets, 205 Loma Linda, reports she expects to have a bumper crop of most everything she planted, and I've noticed that Kim and Mike Emerson's garden at 121 Siesta Lane looks "grea-a-a-t" as Tony the Tiger says.

Mrs. Buster Rice, 233 Loma Linda, also spends lots of time on her garden and her flowers, both of which are doing super.

By the way, the kitten crop at the Rice house is flourishing too. Mrs. Rice has several beautiful trained kittens to give away to good homes. * * *

OMMA LEE AND M.J. Lamkin, 222 La Fiesta, were in El Paso recently to visit a daughter in the hospital there. Mrs. Lamkin reports that the daughter is recovering slowly from a bad automobile accident. We wish her well.

OUR SINCERE EXPRESSIONS of sympathy are extended to Mr. Russell Magnuson, 142 Siesta Lane, on the death of his wife.

NEWCOMERS TO SIESTA include Debbie Brooks, 105 Siesta Lane; Diane Warner, 152 Siesta Lane; Joe Bamboa, 158 Siesta Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Belleville and family, 156 Siesta Lane; Ray Blanchard, 138 Siesta Lane; Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and daughter, 263 Loma Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Garrison and family, 211 La Fiesta; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whitaker and family, 223 Loma Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Homer and family, 212 Loma Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Randall Hasley and family at 204 Loma Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Glen White Eagle, 123 Siesta Lane; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Huls and son at 118 Siesta Lane.

We are glad to have them all, and extend a warm welcome to each.

IN THE HOSPITAL, but doing well, is Dudley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collins, Siesta residents. Get well soon, Dudley.

MARK HOLLIFIELD, SON of Dan Hollifield, 123 Siesta Lane, is visiting family here. Mark is from Tampa, Florida, and I am sure this part of the country is quite different to his home town. Hope you have a nice visit, Mark.

DEBBIE BROOKS, 105 Siesta Lane, spent a recent weekend in Muleshoe, for the wedding of her sister.

Deb said the wedding was beautiful and the visit with family was especially nice.

Also attending the wedding was another park resident, Rick LaCourse, who was very impressed with Muleshoe, Texas and the nice weekend.

SINCE I AM new at this writing a column jazz, I would appreciate all the news that I can get about all of our people here at Siesta.

My phone number is 355-0601, and I thank everyone in advance for their help. Hope everyone has a nice week and that all the Fathers everywhere spent a wonderful day Sunday.

4-H float for parade

By PAUL SAMMONS

The 4-H Teen Leaders Association is sponsoring a float in the Canyon Days parade on July 3 and we encourage 4-Hers to ride on this float if you'd like to. The parade begins at 4:30 p.m. on the square.

We will also be having a fund-raising to supplement the Randall County 4-H Livestock Feeders. We hope this will be as successful as it has been in the past. I extend my sincere appreciation to everyone participating and supporting the 4-H program.

If anyone would be interested in entomology (bug) teams, please contact me. This takes time and effort on your part. It requires some study at home, too. The area's Extension Entomologist, Dr. Carl Patrick, will train the team starting this summer. Items included are: collecting and mounting bugs, identification, parts of the insect, and competing in the district contest next spring. This would be a real good project and team and I hope some of you will be interested.

The District I 4-H Horse Show will be held in Amarillo at the Bill Cody Arena on the Tri-State Fairgrounds June 30 and July 1. Showmanship and halter classes will be judged June 30 in the afternoon and performance will be judged on July 1. The State 4-H Horse Show will be in Amarillo on July 21-24.

The T-Anchor Horse Club is going strong and we encourage people to enroll in 4-H and join the Horse Club and/or community clubs. The T-Anchor club is planning a trail ride on Saturday Aug. 14 in Memphis. This will also include an overnight camp-out.

Once again, lambs are going to be hard to find this year. I suggest you start getting your lambs soon. Some of you have your's or will be getting your own. If you need my help please be sure and call me.

Just a few thoughts on 4-H: I feel that the 4-H programs in Randall County are coming along great. Everyone's participation and help has been excellent. Let's keep up the good work. 4-H is a team effort and cannot be done alone successfully. It takes group effort. We only get out of something what we put in it.

I am real enthusiastic about 4-H in Randall County. Programs take time to build and any suggestions, comments, gripes, etc., would be highly appreciated on my part. Remember that 4-H is "to make the best better."

Injured child is recovering

A six-year-old boy injured Saturday when he darted into the path of a car was described in satisfactory condition Wednesday at Northwest Texas Hospital.

Christopher Erwin Hudgins of 3 Greenwood in Hunsley Hills was struck near his home at 7:50 Saturday evening by an auto traveling west on Southridge.

The driver, Jacque Lee Countryman, 17, of 41 Idlewood, also in Hunsley Hills, told police she did not see the boy in time to stop as he ran into the street from a private driveway. She was not charged.

Hudgins is the first pedestrian injured in Canyon this year.

Killingsworth honor student

Don R. Killingsworth of Canyon has earned "Distinguished Student" ranking at Texas A&M University, announced Registrar Robert A. Lacey.

The undergraduate honor is awarded students who have excelled academically. Recipients must earn at least a 3.25 grade point ratio (out of a possible 4.0) during the most recent grading period.

"Distinguished Student" ranking is limited to 10 per cent of Texas A&M's undergraduate enrollment.

Killingsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Killingsworth, 1423 Hillcrest, is a biomedical science major.

Costumed first graders were such a hit in the recent "Windows to the Past" parade that a special invitation has been extended to the group to participate in the Canyon Days '76 parade on July 3. First graders should convene at the First National Bank parking lot at 4 p.m. in their costumes and are asked to join the parade route until the paraders make their southern turn at the First United Methodist Church. The total parade group will be dismissed upon arrival at Conner Park.

Steve Vernon will soon become pastor of the Baptist Church in Ames, Oklahoma. This will be Steve's first pastorate.

Karon Tompkins, bride-elect of Steve Cole, was honored with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Kip Morgan on Saturday afternoon. Guests were greeted by the hostess, the honoree, Mrs. Steve Cole and Mrs. Jack Tompkins.

The serving table was covered with a white floor length lace cloth and centered with pink tapers and fresh pink daisies. Snowballs, pink fruit punch and mints were served from crystal appointments.

Charlotte Tompkins, sister of the honoree, and a friend of the bride served guests during the afternoon.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames: Kip Morgan, Jimmie Dietz and Sharon, Wendell Sims, Al Schoenenberger, Dozier Thornton, Gwen McFarland, Jerral Mayes, Bob Hargrave, Adrian Bates, Frank Briscoe, Robert Lee, Dale Whitlow, Walter Via, Floyd Tipps, Merl McFarland, Ruth Sims, and Al Murdock.

HAPPY RAINBOW SPONSORS and girls attending Grand Assembly of Rainbow in Houston last week were Ruth Mann, Louese White, Charlotte Weavers, Faye Parker, Romana Weavers, Cathy Parker, Brenda Parker, Debbie Parker, Laura Fellers, Susan Cope, Lissa Foster, Dana Foster, Diane Johnson, Terry Peterson, Nancy Woods and Shelley Peterson.

The group traveled on two chartered buses with four other assemblies, Canyon, Dalhart, Borger and San Jacinto of Amarillo. They toured Astro World on Monday morning, but had attended only two meetings when the lights went out because of the heavy rains which caused flooding. These Panhandle (drought stricken) people had never seen a flood.

Ruth and Alden Mann treat the Assembly to a dinner each year at Grand Assembly. This was the occasion being celebrated on the evening that the rain began to fall.

Because of trouble with one of the buses, the girls were unable to return until Thursday. They attended a baseball game at the Astrodome and watched the Pittsburg Pirates play the Houston Oilers. The famous Astrodome scoreboard flashed a "Welcome Happy Rainbow Assembly" message in gigantic letters during the game.

Cathy Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Parker, received a grand appointment for the coming year. Because of the flood, the announcement was not made, but the appointment will be a floor office. Congratulations, Cathy!

Happy 18th Birthday, Roma! !

Fireworks pack mean wallop

If you are planning to celebrate the nation's birthday with fireworks, be careful and don't light up inside the city limits.

That's the word from local officials as the peak period from June 23 to July 20 arrives.

Fire marshal Jerry Lehnick reminded Canyon residents that fireworks are illegal in the city.

They may be exploded legally in the county but Randall County Sheriff Cliff Longest warned users to be particularly careful of fires.

"We just ask folks to be real careful with those things — especially around wheat fields. We don't want any fires," Longest said.

Fireworks are not playthings, Lehnick said. According to statistics gathered by the National Fire Protection Association, there were 4,200 fires related to fireworks in 1974, with $38 million dollars in damage.

Last year, some 2,600 persons were treated in hospitals for injuries caused by fireworks, he said.

"And there's no telling how many others were hurt and not treated," Lehnick said.

Most people hurt by fireworks are small children, he said.

"The little children standing around watching wind up the victims," he said.

Of 1,000 cases of fireworks injuries studied by NFPA, 735 were bystanders and 417 were participants. The cases studied included 24 deaths and 1,128 injured. The injuries ranged from maiming, loss of sight, embedded material, cuts and burns, he said.

Small children are apt to grab at sparklers and summer dresses are an ever-present danger around fireworks.

"Youngsters shooting fireworks need adult supervision," he cautioned.

There are several safety rules to observe around fireworks, Lehnick said.

Don't hold any fireworks to light, even if the directions say to hold the lower end.

Always place the explosive on the ground to light and then step back.

Don't carry fireworks in a paper bag, unless you take the explosives out and dispose of the bag before using. Paper bags are likely to catch fire. A metal lunchbox is better for carrying fireworks.

Sky rockets, Roman candles and other fireworks that are propelled should be pointed upward and not at a house or car. A 20 mph wind can cause a properly aimed explosive to deflect and possibly cause an injury.

Take care to avoid starting a fire. Lehnick warned that adults responsible for a child would be liable for any penalties if a fire is started.

The city's annual fireworks display on July 4 in carefully regulated. A permit is issued for the display after city officials show financial responsibility and have a licensed demonstrator to handle the fireworks.

New Texas state flags are flying in Canyon this week as the Chamber of Commerce is assisted by Charlie Land in the installation process of flags early this week. The new flags will fly throughout the city during the summer months for various community celebrations as well as a symbol for the summer production in Palo Duro Canyon.

Worst duty in camp falls to Todd Bell, Brian Lehman and Kent Hall as they begin to clean the latrine.

Scoutmaster Pat Hickman rousts out his Troop 31 charges for the morning clean-up routine.

Summer scouting involves training at camp

Doug Elders, Todd Looney and Dwight Elders begin early-morning chores by straightening their tent.

Nearly 20 Canyon boys in Troop 31 spent last week at Camp Don Harrington. Scoutmaster Pat Hickman directed the boys in establishing their campsite and the boys enjoyed working on merit badges, cooking, sleeping and working in the semi-wilds of the camp northeast of Canyon.

Greg Brock wields the broom on KP duty during Troop 31's stay at Camp Don Harrington last week.

Bart Bacon, Aaron Flack and Mike Webb take time out during their busy morning to carve on their neckerchief holders outside their camp tents.

ST. MARY'S NOW has a new pastor, Father James Sonderman. He arrived in time to offer the 8 o'clock Mass, last Sunday. We'd like to welcome Father to Umbarger.

The Mass schedule for the rest of the summer will be a 5:00 p.m. Mass on Saturday, which will satisfy the Sunday obligation, and a 9:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday. This will be in effect until the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine classes start in the Fall.

I DID NOT get a column in last week's Canyon News, as Lewie's brother, Edgar, who was in the Raef Brothers' Butane business with Lewie some years back, died last Monday.

There just wasn't enough time to get a column together.
